POLICY STATEMENT

In extraordinary circumstances, Cornell University may place a student on an involuntary leave of absence for reasons of community safety.

REASON FOR POLICY

The university is committed to protecting its community members from the risk of physical harm, and preserving the integrity of its learning environment. Separation of a student from the university and its facilities may be necessary if there is sufficient evidence that the student is engaging in or is likely to engage in behavior that either poses a danger or disrupts the learning environment of others.

POLICY 7.2
Involuntary Student Leave for Reasons of Community Safety

PRINCIPLES

Overview
This policy is meant to be invoked only in extraordinary circumstances, when a student is unable or unwilling to request a voluntary leave of absence, and such a leave may be necessary because the student’s behavior poses a direct threat to the safety of others or where the student’s behavior is disruptive of the university’s learning environment. Before an involuntary leave is considered, efforts will be made to encourage the student to take a voluntary leave, thus preserving, to the extent possible, confidentiality and privacy.

This policy and these procedures do not take the place of disciplinary actions that are in response to violations of the Campus Code of Conduct, nor do they preclude the removal or dismissal of students from the university or university-owned facilities as a result of violations of other university, college, or unit regulations.
POLICY 7.2
Involuntary Student Leave for Reasons of Community Safety

PROCEDURES

Placing a Student on Involuntary Leave of Absence

The Vice President for Student and Academic Services or a designee may be alerted to a student’s threatening behavior from a variety of sources on campus (such as the student’s advisor, a college dean, Campus Life, or Gannett Health Services). If the Vice President deems it appropriate, these procedures will be initiated.

1. The Vice President for Student and Academic Services or a designee will notify the student that an involuntary leave is under consideration and the reason(s) why an involuntary leave is under consideration. The student will have the opportunity to respond.

2. The Vice President for Student and Academic Services or a designee will discuss with the student the implications of and procedures relating to an involuntary leave of absence. A copy of this policy will be provided to the student. Whenever possible and appropriate, the Vice President for Student and Academic Services or a designee will encourage the student to take a voluntary leave of absence, thereby eliminating the need to complete the process for an involuntary leave.

3. The Vice President for Student and Academic Services or a designee will confer as feasible and when appropriate in a particular matter with the following individuals or their designees regarding the need for a leave of absence:
   a. The dean of the student’s college or school
   b. The Director of Gannett Health Services
   c. The Director of Counseling and Psychological Services
   d. The Dean of Students
   e. The student’s faculty advisor
   f. The Chief of the Cornell Police
   g. Such other individuals as may be appropriate in a particular matter

4. During these consultations, these individuals will pay particular attention to the criteria for invoking an involuntary leave, specifically whether the student’s behavior is disruptive of the university’s learning environment and whether the behavior poses a direct threat to the safety of others. Consideration will also be given to accommodations that may reasonably be provided that will mitigate the need for the involuntary leave.

5. The Vice President for Student and Academic Services or a designee may require a mental or physical evaluation if he or she believes it will facilitate a more informed decision.

6. Following these consultations, the Vice President for Student and Academic Services or a designee will make a decision regarding the involuntary leave of absence, and must provide written notice of this decision to the student.

7. Within five days of receiving the decision of the Vice President for Student and Academic Services, the student may submit an appeal of the decision in writing to the Provost or the Provost’s designee. After reviewing the matter fully, the Provost or the Provost’s designee will issue a written decision, which shall be final.

If Involuntary Leave Is Imposed

The Vice President for Student and Academic Services or a designee will inform the student, along with the notice of the decision, as to the steps that must be taken when the student wishes to re-enroll (see the “Request for Re-enrollment” segment of this document).

If Involuntary Leave Is Not Imposed

The Vice President for Student and Academic Services or a designee may impose other conditions and/or requirements under which the student is allowed to remain at the university.

Request for Re-enrollment

A formal request for re-enrollment must be submitted to the dean of the student’s college or school, with a copy sent to the Vice President for Student and Academic Services. The student’s re-enrollment request will be reviewed by the Vice President for Student and Academic Services or a designee, who, with a dean of the student’s college or school, must approve the re-enrollment.

The Vice President for Student and Academic Services or a designee may consult with one or more of the following individuals regarding the re-enrollment decision and may impose such conditions as they may recommend to help ensure the student’s successful return to the university:

1. The dean of the student’s college or school
2. The Director of Gannett Health Services
3. The Director of Counseling and Psychological Services
4. The Dean of Students
5. The student’s faculty advisor
6. The Chief of the Cornell Police
7. Such other individuals as may be appropriate in a particular matter
